Ted Walle becomes Partner at Kintyre

Frankfurt, 23 May 2018 – Kintyre, the retail and office real estate management and investment specialist, has appointed Ted Walle (48) as a Partner within the firm. Ted Walle is Head of Centre Management for Kintyre and his promotion recognises his outstanding contribution to the firm.

Ted Walle will maintain his current role of Head of Centre Management for Kintyre, which he has performed since joining the firm in 2016. He currently oversees Kintyre's portfolio of 10 Shopping centres, with a staff of around 20. Prior to Kintyre, he worked for DTZ/Donaldson's for more than a decade, undertaking the role of Head of Centre Management in Germany, responsible for 22 centres and 38 staff. Additionally, Ted Walle worked with Acrest and Sonae Sierra.

He joins the existing partnership group of Kintyre, Johannes Nendel, Adam Pearce, Paul Shiels, and Marius Ohlsen.

Founded in 2009, Kintyre is a fully independent owner and operator of commercial real estate, with the firm managing €1.1bn of real estate across Germany for its domestic and international client base.
