Kintyre appoints Guido Beddig to senior management team

Frankfurt, 15 January 2019 – Kintyre, the Frankfurt based investor and real estate manager, has announced the appointment of Guido Beddig (50), a well-known and experienced asset and property manager, to its senior management team.

Mr Beddig has joined Kintyre's co-founders Paul Shiels, Johannes Nendel and Adam Pearce at managing director level within the firm and it is the intention that he will become a significant shareholder within the business during 2019. He joins Kintyre from DIC Onsite GmbH, where he was managing director from 2015.

Mr Beddig has over 15 years' experience as a senior director within different asset and property management businesses and has extensive, high-level expertise in the development and structuring of high-growth companies in the real estate sector. He previously served as Chief Operating Officer of Property Management and as member of the management board at IC Immobilien Holding AG. In 2004, he became managing partner for PropertyOne GmbH. In addition, he also served as Managing Director of IC Property Management GmbH (ICPM) and IC Immobilien Service GmbH (ICIS) a subsidiary company of IC Immobilien Holding AG.

Kintyre's managing director, Johannes Nendel, said: "We are extremely pleased to have a professional of the calibre and experience of Guido join the Kintyre team. Guido's appointment is a key element to ensure that, while Kintyre continues to move forward with our balanced growth strategy, we maintain the highest possible professional standards and that we can always ensure that our clients and partners have direct access to Kintyre senior management in all aspects and level of the services we provide."

Guido Beddig added: "Kintyre's reputation, its focus on innovation and the firm's ethos, combined with its proactive approach to real estate investment and asset management, provides huge potential for growth in terms of both assets under management and company expansion. I am hugely excited by the opportunity of assisting in Kintyre's next chapter, helping it achieve its ambitious plans for growth in Germany and abroad. With its strong team and innovative approach I am confident that we can deliver the right opportunities for our clients and build upon our reputation as a leading real estate investor and manager."

Kintyre was founded in 2009, and remains a fully independent owner/operator, with the firm managing €1.5bln of real estate across Germany for its domestic and international client base.
